

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

IN RE:

HOSPITAL DAMAS, INC.

Debtor

CASE NO. 10-08844

CHAPTER 11

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT OF
FINANCIAL CONSULTANT FOR DEBTOR

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

COMES NOW Debtor through its undersigned counsel and very respectfully states and prays:

1. On September 24, 2010, Debtor filed its petition for reorganization under the provisions of 11 U.S.C. Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Debtor is in need of an accountant to assist its management in the financial restructuring of its affairs by providing advice in strategic planning and the preparation of Debtor's plan of reorganization, disclosure statement and business plan, and participating in Debtor's negotiations with Debtor's creditors.

3. In selecting CPA Luis R. Carrasquillo & CO, P.S.C ("Carrasquillo"), Debtor has made careful and diligent inquiry into the qualifications and connections and has found Carrasquillo and its members to be duly qualified to assist Debtor in the aforesaid areas by reason of their ability, integrity and professional experience.

4. The duties of Carrasquillo will consist of strategic counseling and advice, pro forma modeling preparation, financial/business assistance, preparation of documentation as requested for and during Debtor's Chapter 11, specifically as it is related to and has an effect on Debtor, as well as recommendations and financial/business assessments regarding issues specifically related to Debtor.

5. Debtor has retained Carrasquillo on the basis of $25,000.00 advance by Debtor, against which Carrasquillo will bill as per the hourly billing rates specified in Annex I to Exhibit A hereto, upon application(s) and the approval of the Court. These rates are considered to be reasonable and fair, in line with services comparable to those performed on behalf of other clients. Upon the exhaustion of the retainer, the billing will continue, as aforestated and any compensation will be processed through the pertinent application(s) to be filed with the Court.

6. In light of the professional services to be rendered in the short term and the nature of this case, it is requested that Carrasquillo be allowed to file its applications for interim compensation every sixty days from its appointment as Debtor's accountant.

7. Carrasquillo and the members of the accounting firm are disinterested persons as defined in 11 U.S.C. §101(14) since:

(A) They are not Debtor's creditors, equity security holders or insiders;

(B) They are not and were not, within two years before the date of the filing of the petition directors, officers or employees of the Debtor.

(C) They do not have an interest materially adverse to the interest of the estate or of any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in the Debtor.

8. Except that Carrasquillo has provided financial consulting services to Debtor geared to Debtor's reorganization during the past two years and that Carrasquillo has acted as financial consultant in other bankruptcy cases in which Charles Cuprill, Esq., Debtor's counsel, Carrasquillo has no prior connections with the Debtor, its officers, directors and insiders, any creditor, or other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States Trustee or any person employed in the office of the United States Trustee.

9. The Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §327(a) provides that:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the trustee¹, with the court's approval, may employ one or more attorneys, accountants, appraisers, auctioneers, or other professional persons, that do not hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate, and that are disinterested persons, to represent or assist the trustee in carrying out the trustee's duties under this title.

This section authorizes the debtors-in-possession, subject to the Court's approval, to employ professional persons, such as attorneys, accountants, appraisers, auctioneers, engineers and accountants, to represent or perform services for the estates. House Report Number 95-595, 95th. Congress, First Sess. (1977) 328.

10.11 U.S.C. §328(a) provides:

"The trustee, or a committee appointed under section 1102 of this title, with the court's approval, may employ or authorize the employment of a professional person under section 327 or 1103 of this title, as the case may be, on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, or on a contingent fee basis. Notwithstanding such terms and conditions, the court may allow compensation different from the compensation provided under such terms and conditions after the conclusion of such employment, if such terms and conditions prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions."

11. In compliance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 327, 329, and 504(b)(1) and Rules

Debtor

CASE NO. 10-08844

CHAPTER 11

CERTIFICATE OF PROPOSED FINANCIAL CONSULTANT FOR DEBTOR

I, LUIS R. CARRASQUILLO RUIZ, do hereby certify under penalty of perjury that to the best of my knowledge, information and belief the following is true and correct:

1. I am a Certified Public Accountant and practitioner fully admitted to the practice of public accounting in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. CPA Luis R. Carrasquillo & Co, P.S.C. ("Carrasquillo") of which I am the principal, where I maintain a professional office at 28th Street, #TI-26, Turabo Gardens Avenue, Caguas, Puerto Rico 00725, phone numbers 787-746-4555, 787-746-4556 and fax number 787-746-4564.

3. As of March 4, 2010, Carrasquillo agreed to represent Debtor in these proceedings, as more particularly set forth in paragraph four (4) of Debtor's application for appointment of accountant, subject to the approval of this Court.

4. To the best of my knowledge, I and the members of the firm are disinterested persons, as defined in 11 U.S.C. §101(14) since:

(A) We are not creditors, equity security holders or insiders of the Debtor;

(B) We are not and were not within 2 years before the date of the filing of Debtor's petition, directors, officers or employees of the Debtor.

(C) We do not have an interest materially adverse to the interest of the estate or of any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in, the Debtor or for any other reason.

5. Except that Carrasquillo has provided financial consulting services to Debtor geared to Debtor's reorganization during the past two years and that Carrasquillo has acted as financial consultant in other bankruptcy cases in which Charles Cuprill, Esq., Debtor's counsel, Carrasquillo has no prior connections with the Debtor, its officers, directors and insiders, any creditor, or other party in interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the United States Trustee or any person employed in the office of the United States Trustee.

6. The source of the compensation promised to my firm shall be from Debtor's operations and from such funds as may be available to Debtor from third parties and to which Debtor may be legally entitled, or as may be advanced by Debtor's principals.

7. Debtor has retained Carrasquillo as its financial consultant in these proceedings subject to the approval of this Court in accordance to Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, on the basis of a $25,000.00 advance, paid by Debtor, against which I have and will continue bill on the basis of the standard rates set forth in the Annex I attached hereto, subject to application(s) and the approval of the Court; rates which are considered to be reasonable and fair, in line with services comparable to those performed on behalf of other clients. Upon the exhaustion of the retainer, the billing will continue, as aforestated and any compensation will be processed through the pertinent application(s) to be filed with the Court.

8. There are no agreements on the part of Carrasquillo, for the sharing of any compensation or reimbursement received or to be received under 11 U.S.C. §§330(a) and 503(b)(2), or otherwise in connection with this case, nor will Carrasquillo share in any such compensation or reimbursement received by another person under such sections, except the customary payments to the member of the firm.

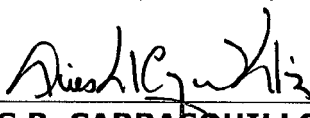

9. I will amend this statement immediately upon learning that (a) any of the representations made herein are incorrect, or (b) there is any change of circumstances relating thereto.

10. I have reviewed the provisions of Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1.

11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, as provided in 28 U.S.C §1746.
